

Hale Holden of Black Point, Railroad Leader, Passes On

Funeral services were held this morning in St. Bartholomew's chapel at Park avenue and 51st street, New York city, with private interment, for Hale Holden of New York city, a summer resident at Black Point for many years, who died Monday evening in Doctors' hospital, New York city. He was stricken at his summer home at Black Point several weeks ago and removed to New York by ambulance.

Mr. Holden, one of the foremost railroad men in the country, was 71 years of age and a native of Kansas City, Mo. He attended Williams college and studied law at Harvard Law school, after which he entered practice in Kansas City and became a member of the firm of Warner, McCloud, Dean & Holden. In 1907 he became general counsel for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Co. In 1910 he became assistant to the president of the same company, and two years later was advanced to the vice presidency of the company. In 1914 he became president of the C. B. & Q., and of the Colorado & Southern lines, which posts he held until 1929, when he was chosen chairman of the executive committee of the Southern Pacific, and in 1932 was named chairman of the board. In 1917 he was appointed a member of the advisory board to the United States director general of railroads, and later was regional director of the central western region of the railroad administrator.

He was a director of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., the New York Life Insurance Co. and the Chemical Bank & Trust Co. He was also a former director of the Western Electric Co. Inc., and Japan society. On Aug. 11 of last year, on reaching the age of 70 years, he was retired as chairman of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Co. His salary while chairman was $150,000 a year. In the fall of 1939 he registered in East Lyme as a Republican voter and was made an elector.

Surviving are two sons, Hale Holden, Jr., of Philadelphia, vice president of the Pullman Co.; Philip L. Holden of New York, assistant secretary of the Chemical Bank & Trust Co.; a daughter, Mrs. Winfield Scott Linn of St. Charles, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Holden Lautenbach of New York, and a brother, Willard Holden of Los Angeles, Calif.

Cottager Dies

HALE HOLDEN
Black Point Summer Resident, Recently Stricken, Expires